FAQ

On Wednesday, 15 May 2015, the Human Rights Commission visited our residence in Brisbane and made an informal referral to the University of Queensland to take legal action regarding our request. The letter below reflects our legal advice and views. Our lawyers are currently evaluating a range of options.. We feel that the University of Queensland supports an open and tolerant culture in our communities and in our societies and supports this with their efforts to support diversity and inclusion. Our legal advice and views reflect how we have been told by University authorities that Muslims cannot be treated equitably and we hope that there is a move within this institution to seek redress for us. However, as you can imagine, we will not stand by as our rights are denied and our dignity is violated. We hope to be given the opportunity to share our experiences and to raise awareness.. The malaria parasite is generally spread through the bite of a human-to-human or animal-to-human carrier who bites an infected human or animal for the second or third time during a month in the month preceding the visit.
